Finding, Evaluating and Visiting New Partner Schools: A Practical Guide

Thomas Legge

Momoyama Gakuin University

Abstract

In this presentation, the presenter reflects on his experiences visiting 15+ possible partner schools in Indonesia, Singapore, the Philippines and Thailand. The presentation will touch upon visit planning, scheduling, getting the most out of school visits, assessing teaching quality, information gathering, and what to do when returning home. It will also briefly discuss partner school visits from the perspective of university administration and some of the hurdles and challenges to be overcome in getting new school partnerships up and running.
